Explanation of Terms

Training Package

A nationally endorsed, integrated set of competency standards, assessment guidelines and Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) qualifications for a specific industry sector or enterprise.

Unit

The term, unit is used to refer to both modules and units of competency.

Accredited Unit of Competency

Each accredited unit specifies industry knowledge and skills and application of that knowledge and skill to the standard of performance expected in the workplace.

Completion of a Qualification

When you complete a qualification you will receive a testamur and transcript. If the qualification is graded it will report the grade of award as Distinction, Credit or Pass depending on the results you achieved in these units contributing to the grade of the qualification. If you were studying a qualification which is not graded, your testamur and transcript will not indicate a grade of award.

Documents You May Receive

Testamur

A Testamur is an official certification document that confirms that a nationally recognised qualification or course has been awarded to an individual.

Transcript of Academic Record

A transcript which lists all results of your training at date of issue.

Statement of Competencies Achieved

A transcript which lists unit(s) of competency that you have achieved by completing the TAFE NSW module(s) that align with unit(s) of competency.

Statement of Attainment

A transcript issued when a learner has completed one or more nationally recognised units of competency and withdraws from a qualification before completing.

Record of Successful Study

A transcript which lists results for those units in which you have been successful. This transcript is available on request.

Report to Employer

If you are in contract of training, a report is also sent to your employer. The report lists attendance as well as results.

Results

Graded Results – some units are graded.

On completing these units you will receive a Distinction, Credit, Pass or Competent depending on the category of assessment attached to your unit.

Ungraded Results – Some units are not graded.

On completing these units you will receive either a result of Pass (Ungraded) or Competent depending on the category of assessment attached to your unit

Competent

You have achieved the outcomes of the unit

Competent by Credit Transfer

Your result gained in previous study in TAFE NSW of a unit with the same outcomes has been transferred to your current enrolment

By Advanced Standing

You have achieved the outcomes of the unit through previous study or experience.

By Credit Transfer

You have achieved the outcomes of the unit through recognition of previous study or experience.

Fail

You have not met the requirements of the unit.

Not Competent

You have not met the requirements of the unit.

Withdrawn

You have withdrawn from the unit.

Pending Work Report

You are an Apprentice or Trainee and your workplace evidence is pending – a final result will not be entered until this evidence has been received from your employer.

Received Tuition – T

You have completed this unit. Assessment not required.

Received Tuition – RT

You have applied yourself with diligence and have achieved some progress towards completion of the unit outcome.
